The Awful Truth

The two reports - a scientific account and a version for the general public - present an oeuvre that shows, with unprecedented clarity, how certain forms of reflection are accessible only in aesthetic terms: a kind of authentically scientific-aesthetic knowledge, or, alternately, ability is called for; this mode of experience and cognition cannot be disqualified as compensatory and irrational or dismissed as an unscientific eruption of sentiment. Now with his love, now in his colde grave i Allone withouten eny compainye.
